

artist books: night growth

These books explore transformations of self. They delve into connections between past and present experiences. In the night growth series, the books evoke mysterious plant forms and become a metaphor for the transformations of the body. These books have the transparent, vivid quality of a poignant dream. As well they can present a pure visual journey. Perhaps a visit to my garden?

These books were completed 1997 through 2005 and have been exhibited numerous times.

Night growth:: the bud, lithography and letter press 18x20 inches, accordion book, 2005

night growth, lithography and monoprint, 8x18inches,
accordion book, 2001

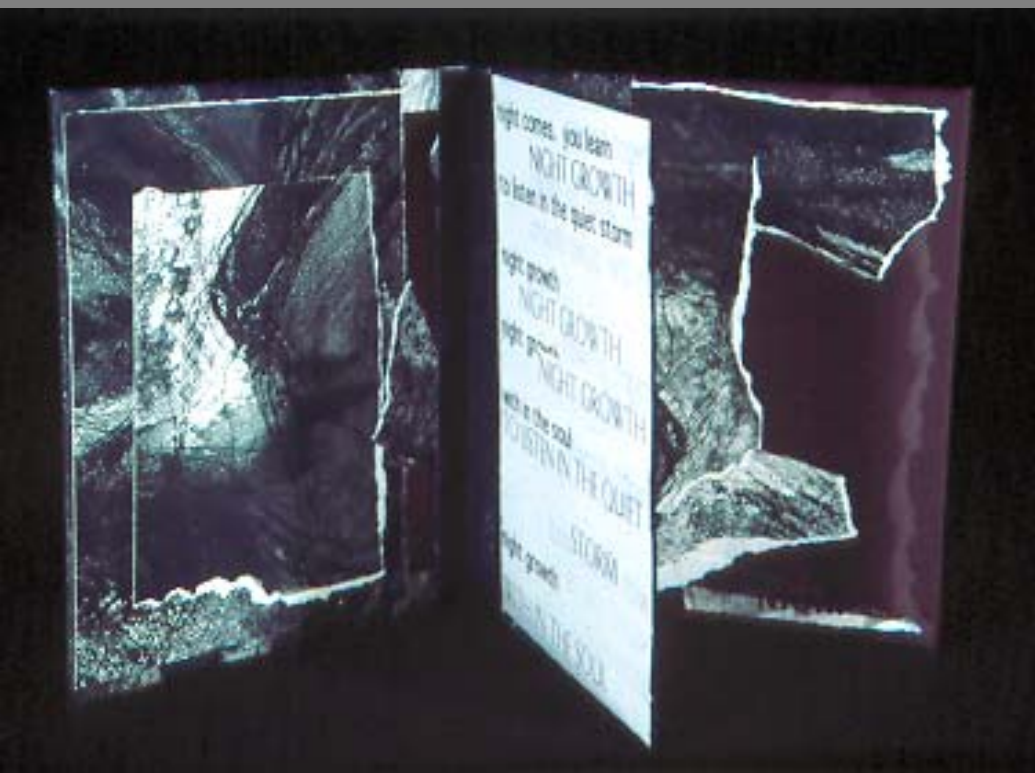

night growth, lithography and monoprint, 8x18inches,
accordion book, 2001

dream, wax batik and monoprint, 6x36inches,
2000

NIGHT GROWTH, etching, collage and digital text, 12x18 inches, sewn in page, 1998